ROGERS' BLOW AT LAWSON

Thomas W. Lawson to-day gave out a statement in reply to the State street and Wall street rumor that one of the last acts of H. H. Rogers's life was to deal a financial blow to him and prevent him from making millions in his Process Copper Company project.

The story was that Lawson, finding that he could not raise a large sum of money because of the interference of Rogers, had a stormy meeting with him on Tuesday afternoon of last week and that the excitement contributed to the death of Rogers at 6 o'clock the next morning.

In his statement Mr. Lawson does not say whether or not he saw Mr. Rogers. He admits, however, that he had to have a large sum of money banked at 12 o'clock last Monday, that it developed the cash would not be there except under "changed conditions," and that he had to scramble and get it. He didn't get it.

"Dreams Jarred, Not Marred."

Mr. Lawson says that his dreams were jarred, not marred. He, Charles A. Bradley and Albert C. Burrage own the copper process, a new scheme for extracting copper from its ore, he says, in equal parts. Then he continues:

"Mr. Burrage and myself had an option on the Santa Rita mines. It would have been a payment by us of a very large amount of cash. I supposed we had it ready for the payment. If it had been paid by Mr. Burrage and myself we both would have instantly made millions out of the Santa Rita mines. It suddenly developed that the cash which must be in a certain bank by 11 o'clock last Monday would not be there unless under changed conditions, and as everyone knows, I never did strive well at changed conditions. Therefore it was necessary to scramble and not stand on the order of the scrambling. But that scrabbling is the badge of all my tribe, and I am not ashamed.

An Off Week for Dreams.

"The cash was in the bank. Santa Rita changed ownership. The big banking house which is to-day at the head of Country Copper has Santa Rita and one of my dreams is jarred, not marred, but simply jarred, which will jerk me more time to dream out the great Process.

"(P. S.—Last week was an off week for dreams."

The "jarring" of Mr. Lawson's dreams resulted in his sending out the following notice to the bondholders of the Process Copper Company:

The notice was:

Thomas W. Lawson, Boston.

To the Subscribers for Process Copper Company Bonds:

Owing to the sudden death of Mr. Henry H. Rogers, it is impossible for me to go ahead with the proposed issue of Process Copper Company bonds. I am, therefore, returning all subscriptions and checks, with my personal check for the amount of interest paid for the period from date of subscription check to to-day, six per cent on American subscriptions, five per cent on European subscriptions.

Although the last of these have just been mailed and correspondence with those who have books and who wish to subscribe is in process, the direct and immediate responses to my offer had been such a flattering tribute to my life's effort largely offset the deep regret with which I am overwhelmed at the sudden and unexpected ending of the plans, the carrying out of which in the way I originally intended had become more than business to me.

THOMAS W. LAWSON.

Boston, May 26, 1909.

Glitterign Prospectus.

Mr. Lawson's great plan was outlined in a 304-page book which he mailed only a week ago to investors in Europe and America. It showed Mr. Lawson in possession of a wonderful process for the extraction of copper from its ore and in control of the Santa Rita mines and which he proposed, after having by offer had the public for their generous reception of my latest

SEND IN FLAT PACKAGE DO NOT ROLL

PACE IS HOT IN BIG WORLD TOUR CONTEST

FOLLOW your leaders in the BOSTON AMERICAN Tours Contest, boys and girls! They are setting a warm pace, but if you are possessed of the proper mettle, you can easily hold your own at first, then pass them.

Today is your chance. There seems to be a sudden lull, improve the opportunity. Get to the front. Let that be your motto.

There are some new faces among the leaders every day. New names appear daily in the list of twenty-nine boys and twenty-nine girls who will go on the various tours offered by the BOSTON AMERICAN. If you are not one of them, it is your own fault. It simply means that you have not pluck and determination enough to assert yourself. Each one of you can be a leader in the course of one day's work, but where is the effort?

Girls Make Better Showing.

The girls are making a "show" of the boys. There are more girls working with better results in their aggregate than are their male rivals. Wake up, boys! Get busy!

Some startling surprises are in store for the candidates Sunday when the standing of candidates appears. Some "dark horses" have stepped to the front since the last publication and some names hitherto unheard, have jumped to the first ranks. Some of the boys and girls have taken too much for granted and have eased up, but once when they should have been pulling hard.

With the possibilities of vote getting by the paid-in-advance subscriptions, it is singularly essential that each one of you look to your laurels. The leader today may be given a serious setback in the course of a week, and the standing as one Sunday is no indication of the position of the leaders during the entire week.

Don't Slip Down.

The standing is constantly changing. The jumping, vaulting, leaping and somersaulting of a week, merely gives you a hold on the place you attain for THAT day ONLY. The NEXT day may see you slump down a peg or two, and one can tell where you will land at the end of the voting week.

It behoves every one of you to keep on plugging for all you are worth, just because some of the boys and girls do not happen to be among the twenty-nine leaders, does not mean that they are blindly groping for better positions. Not much. They have their eyes RIGHT ON THE LEADERS. They are making steady and well planned strides for the high places and if you don't watch out, they will GET THERE.

Always keep in mind that the paid-in-advance subscription voting forms the best means of winning the great tour prizes. Try and establish the perpetual motion idea into your vote getting. Time is flying and it's up to you to keep the pendulum swinging from now until the 29th of June.

Now that the ball is rolling keep it going. If your friends have given you subscriptions for three or six months go and ask them to extend their subscriptions. They will do it.

The friends of Chester W. Heegar, No. 77 Easton street, Allston, one of the prominent leaders in the race, are planning a Victor Dance at Brairree Hall, Allston, on Wednesday evening, June 9th. Something novel in the way of dance music is promised.

The proceeds will be used in furthering his candidacy.

Gladys Waters, No. 11 Seaborn avenue, Somerville, is to be the guest of honor at a complimentary entertainment and theatre party tendered by her friends, under the direction of Mrs. Stain's Orchestra at Euclid Hall, Somerville, Friday evening, June 4. She added on over 5,000 votes yesterday.

Ida Rumrill, No. 74 Orchard street, Malden, is determined to get to the front and has polled over fifteen thousand votes and while but these will not show in her standing Sunday.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Cheap Substitutes and "Just as Good As."

Unscrupulous dealers, mindful only of profit and caring nothing for the health of their patrons, are offering for sale low-grade, impure concoction, which they tell you is as "good as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey." This is done, to deceive the people. Of course, when a remedy has been before the public so long, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in all the prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has, imitations are bound to arise. But they can imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus producing a liquid food, requiring no digestion, in the form of a medicinal whiskey, which is one of the most effective tonic stimulants and invigorators known to science, sufficiently warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS!

Any firm that will sell imitation or substitution goods will sell impure goods. The firm that is dishonest in one thing would not hesitate to be dishonest in another. Whenever you see imitation and substitution goods offered for sale by a firm, beware of anything and everything put up by that firm. You endanger your own life and the lives of your family and friends by dealing with them.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk. A fac-simile of the genuine bottle is printed here so that you may easily recognize it. It is our own patented bottle—round, amber colored and with the name "Duffy Malt Whiskey Company" blown in the glass. The trade-mark—the Old Chemist's Head—is on the label, and over the cork there is an engraved paper seal. Be certain this seal is not broken.

It is the only whiskey recognized by doctors everywhere as a family medicine. At all druggists, grocers, dealers, or direct, $1 a bottle.

BANDITS RAID A RESTAURANT

NEW YORK, May 28.—Four men with drawn revolvers, and in true wild Western style, held up about thirty women and men in Fleimann's restaurant, No. 444 Seventh avenue, early to-day and robbed them of all the money they had.

The robbers terrorized the patrons of the restaurant for more than ten minutes by flashing their pistols and threatening to kill anyone who made an outcry. Then, after becoming satisfied that they had all the money it was possible to get they walked out.

The four entered at the same time, two standing at the door with drawn revolvers while the others with pistols in hand, approached the cashier and patrons and demanding money. Several women began to scream, but they were quickly hushed by one of the men at the door saying: "The first person who screams again I will kill, so help me God! Stay where you are and be quiet."

PICKPOCKETS IN 'L' CROWDS

Three men who the police say are among the most expert pickpockets in the country were held for the grand jury in the Roxbury court today. They were captured at the Dudley street terminal of the Elevated during the rush hours last night by Inspectors Smith and Burr after a lively tussle.

The inspectors say they detected the men attempting to pick pockets and started after them. The trio jumped on a surface car and were dragged off after a hard fight. In court today they gave their names as Daniel Kelley, Henry Courtney and Frank Harris. They were held on two charges of attempted larceny in total bail of $3,000.

The police regard the arrest of the three as particularly important as they say the men are undoubtedly the vanguard of those who will come here next week to try to work the circus crowds.

BOYS CONFESS; TIES ON TRACK

Three train wreckers, all under sixteen years of age, to-day, in the Somerville Police Court, confessed how they had fastened ties to the tracks of the Boston & Maine railroad in an attempt to wreck passenger trains. They said they had been reading of daring hold-ups in dime novels where robbers wrecked trains and wanted to carry out the ideas from these stories.

The boys are Kenneth C. Foster, fifteen, of No. 28 Enutis street, Cambridge; Frank L. Rice, of No. 8 Harris place, Cambridge; and Albert F. Martin of Beacon street, Somerville. They made three attempts to wreck passenger trains on the Fitchburg division of the Boston & Maine. Thousands of lives were endangered by their attempts. Three trains hit the obstruction, the second being the Chicago express.

The Rice boy was sentenced to the Lyman School for Boys. The Foster boy will be sentenced June 4th, while Albert Martin, being under fourteen years of age, is classed as a delinquent.

CALLED BOGUS LAFAYETTE KIN

NEW YORK, May 28.—The Count de Lafayette, great grandson of General Lafayette, who in 1902 represented his family at the unveiling of the Rochambeau statue in Washington, makes public a statement repudiating relationship to N. Lafayette Savay, organizer of the American Civic Alliance. He supplemented his emphatic denial of relationship with the following statement:

"During the last few weeks I have been asked many questions concerning my connection with the American Civic Alliance, of which many people imagined I was the organizer.

"I have no connection whatsoever with that society, which I understand has been created by a Mr. Lafayette Savay."

The Count says he has asked and written Savay to explain his claim of relationship, but still awaits answer.

FIND FREAK MAN IN RAID

SHARON, Pa., May 28.—A strange, mad creature, fashioned on the lines of a man, and whose existence has been hidden from the world since its birth, was discovered at Wheatland, in the home of James Mathews and his wife, as a police raid. The man and woman have been arrested on a charge of cruel and inhuman treatment of a person of feeble mind.

MISSIONARIES WHO FLED TURKEY HERE

Miss Elizabeth C. Clark and Miss Harriet L. Cole, for many years missionaries in Turkey, have just arrived here on the Cunard liner Ivernia. Miss Cole is suffering from nervous prostration as a result of the recent disorders in Turkey. The Ivernia was delayed seven hours by fog on the Grand Banks. She took the southern course, in order to avoid the icebergs reported in the North Atlantic.

CALL ON FIREMEN TO GIVE UP PIANO

ROCKPORT, May 28.—The fifteen members of the G. P. SOTHERN'S ART SEEN IN ROMEO

E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe have delighted a big Boston audience by a production of "Romeo and Juliet" at the Majestic Theatre. The house was jammed to the back wall last night when, for the second time during this Sothern engagement, Miss Marlowe appeared by special arrangement. "Romeo and Juliet" was an addition to the original Sothern repertoire announced for the Boston booking and Bostonians were quick to take advantage of it.

Mr. Sothern's Romeo was faultless. With the lofty artistry characteristic of his acting as portrayed the lovelorn youth, sweet and tender to his Juliet, and fiercely aggressive toward his foes.

Miss Marlowe was superb as Juliet. In the famous balcony scene the artistic atmosphere was at its height, both stars reading their lines with surpassing sweetness and feeling. The suppiuse, which was spontaneous and warm all through, was particularly so for such scenes as those of the balcony and other more notable ones in the famous Shakespearian tragedy.

Frederick Lewis as Mercutio and Frank Reicher as Benvolio were particularly noticeable in the supporting company. But the support was generally admirable. The stage craft and general production were on a high plane suitable to the acting.

To-night Mr. Sothern appears in "If I Were King." To-morrow afternoon Mr. Sothern and Miss Marlowe again appear in "Hamlet." To-morrow night Mr. Sothern closes his local engagement with another performance of "Richelieu."

Nearly everybody in Boston reads the AMERICAN.

WONDERLAND WONDERS FREE

By Saturday morning at 10 o'clock Wonderland Park will be ready for the public and when the gates open at 1 o'clock p. m. nothing will be lacking to furnish patrons with the best array of park amusements ever presented in New England.

In addition to the fixed features, such as the great rides, that cannot be improved except to embellish and beautify them, visitors will find in Wonderland this year the finest string of productions ever, such as the "1915 Mammoth Vaudeville," "1915 Minstrels," "Golden Graces," "Girl in the Moon," Crazy House and the rest.

The management will furnish a combination fifty-cent ticket good for park admission and ten shows and other reduced rate tickets.

Then the SUNDAY AMERICAN will give free coupons good for sixty cents' worth of fun. Next Sunday's paper will publish a list of twelve coupons, the longest strip of free tickets ever given by a newspaper for one amusement park. Full directions will be published with the coupons. Each free ticket tells its own story. They are for use on Tuesday or Wednesday, June 1 or 2, day or evening.

One is for free admission to the park, another for free admission to either the Chutes or Hell Gate, four are half-fare tickets to ten-cent attractions and six are for use at five-cent amusements at the rate of two admissions for five cents and a free ticket.

TRUST AND BANK MERGER

A merger of the Commonwealth Trust Company and the New England National Bank, which are now controlled by the same interests, will shortly take place. The combined deposits are $12,000,000. George S. Mumford, who has a substantial block of the trust company's stock, has been elected president. The cashier and clerks of the New England National will continue in similar positions with the trust company after the merger and will remain in the present offices on Milk street. The directors of the bank are to be added to the board of the trust company. The present offices of the trust company will be kept after the merger, and the bank's quarters become a branch. The exact date of the merger has not been announced.

Beautifying the Home

The reason certain people cannot become enthusiastic on the subject of beautifying the home, one of life's greatest pleasures, is because they view everything from a pessimistic standpoint, a condition which is the natural and infallible consequence of a diseased liver, stomach, kidneys or impure blood. They can discover no charm in this beautiful world, which abounds in treasures created to delight the heart and the eyes of man. Suffering inwardly, they are blind outwardly, and therefore their impressions become distorted, and they are pursued by ghastly, mocking spectres. If you have any of the following symptoms—sick headaches, sour, bloated stomach, dizziness, sleeplessness, tired feeling, nervousness, want of energy and despondency, you need Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood, and thus cures disease. To prove my statements, if not cured of your trouble send the empty box and your money will be returned. Treatment free. Dr. W. H. Burkhart, Station B, Cincinnati, Ohio.

NOTICE:—

On account of the extremely large number of orders daily being received—both for Yearly and for Summer Telephone Service—the Commercial Offices of this Company, at 119 Milk St., will be kept open Saturday afternoon, May 29, until 5 o'clock, to receive all "last minute" orders.

This is the last chance you have to become a telephone subscriber and to have your name appear in the Summer Telephone Directories of the Boston and Suburban and East Central Divisions—no further publication of listings until fall.

This Notice Is Positively Final.

BATTIS GUILTY IN GRAFT CASE

court room at the time. After Judge Schofield had announced the raising of bail Mr. Battis was taken to the detention room, where he had a long conference with his attorneys, who expected to get the required bond to-day.

Battis had not obtained bail up to the noon recess, although two bondsmen appeared to give it. One of them was William Hraw who does a huckstering business and has an office at No. 264 Atlantic avenue. He was acceptable. Henry A. Johnson, who deals in bakers' and confectioners' supplies at No. 224 State street, offered to go on the bond and stated that he had property assessed at $70,000 with an equity of $20,000.

Judge Schofield asked Johnson to give his liabilities, but Johnson refused and the Judge declared that he would have to do it or he would not be accepted. Lawyer Coakley argued that Johnson was perfectly responsible and finally Judge Schofield said that if the District Attorney, after investigation found him right he would be taken. Coakley and Johnson then went to talk the matter over with Mr. Hill. Battis had his luncheon brought in to him in the detention room.

The maximum penalty for the offence of which he is accused is five years. On two counts he might be given ten years.

Mrs. Battis is Silent.

Battis lives with his wife and mother at No. 112 Monmouth street, East Boston. His wife heard of the verdict soon after it was rendered. When seen by a reporter she said:

"I can not discuss the case in any way. You will have to excuse me."

The news of the verdict flew through political, municipal and business circles. It was the second case that District Attorney Hill had prosecuted since he took office, two trials being necessary in each case.

Judge Talks to Jury.

In the course of his talk to the jury before it had reached a verdict to-day, Judge Schofield said:

"The court understands that you have not yet reached an agreement, and I thought it proper to bring you in on the opening of court. You have made two requests for additional instructions, and it seems to me that no additional instructions are needed.

"The single and only question is whether on the evidence and on the law as I stated it, George H. Battis is guilty of larceny from the city of Boston. As citizens and as jurors you have a public duty to perform. That duty is to decide the issue in this case.

"All rests with the jury. The law expects you to decide that issue and only that. I thought that I might be of some aid to you by reading to you the instructions given to the jury in another case, a case similar to this, when the jury had difficulty in reaching a decision."

Judge Schofield then read a portion of a charge which concluded as follows:

"The jury room is no place for private opinion or for exposing a particular side of a cause."

FINE SIX CAUGHT IN AN TUTO TRAP

Caught in the Wellesley auto trap last Saturday and Sunday, these automobilists were fined $15 each in Dedham District Court to-day: Foster Allen, No. 21 Warren avenue; Dr. M. S. Burke, Natick; John T. Henry, No. 3 Brewer street, Cambridge; M. E. Hilliard, No. 7 Sheridan street, Jamaica Plain; A. D. Lane, No. 65 Thetford avenue, Dorchester; L. H. Fuller, Wellesley. Dr. Burke appealed. Dr. A. C. Potter of Boston was found not guilty of overspeeding. W. F. Barnard of Wellesley had his case continued till to-morrow. E. M. Slack of Boston and Paul H. Scott of Newton failed to appear.

BALLOON HIT PEAK, TARGET OF LIGHTNING

NEW YORK, May 28.—Leo Stevens, the aeronaut, is in New York today after an experience in a balloon which he declares was the worst he ever went through. For three hours the big balloon in which he swung with three others was buffeted by a raging storm, almost constantly in danger from lightning, and swept around and against Mt. Greylock, seventy miles from where the party started, at Springfield, Mass.

Again and again the basket grazed boulders as the balloon was whirled about the mountain by the circling wind. When finally a landing was made safely the deflated bag, weighing 900 pounds, three times its usual weight, on account of the water it caught, was carried down a rocky path in a wagon which was wrecked by the terrible condition of the road.

In the basket besides Mr. Stevens were F. M. Sadler, a Buffalo enthusiast; H. G. Pierpont of Boston, and Charles G. Culver of Springfield. The start was made at Springfield in a light rain. Before they had a fair start a terrific storm struck.

Up 9000 feet the balloon shot above the storm, which churned the air to an elevation of 5000 feet.

"Below us," said Mr. Stevens "was a raging sea of clouds. For a thousand feet we watched the black mass surge and crush here and there with lightning.

"Only now and then in our trip could we see Mt. Greylock. The greater part of the time we were simply whirling around in a mist."

STRENGTH FOR THE STOMACH

The experience of sufferers from stomach trouble, who have tried the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, has been that their trouble has disappeared as soon as the blood was made pure. The numerous disorders of the stomach, as catarrh of the stomach, acid stomach, nervous dyspepsia, neuralgia of the stomach, gastritis, and lack of tone, have the same underlying cause—impure blood. In each case the stomach is weak. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills supply the stomach with the strength it needs by enriching and purifying the blood. Pure blood gives tone to the nerves, muscles, and glands of the stomach and makes it capable of properly performing the work of digestion.

Mr. John E. Coffin, of No. 157 Saratoga street, East Boston, says:

"A few years ago I had dyspepsia in its worst form. In less than three months I lost about fifty pounds in weight. I had no appetite and everything I ate turned sour and caused me great distress. I suffered continually with headaches, flatulency, heart-burn and constipation. I vomited frequently. I was nervous, restless at night and had palpitation of the heart. At times it seemed as though my breath would leave me. I was a physical wreck and prayed that I might die.

"I suffered in this way for over two years. I used all sorts of medicines and my doctor's bill ran into the hundreds but to no purpose.

"While reading my newspaper one day I saw a case similar to mine that had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I sent for a box and used them according to directions. I found before long that the pills were doing the work, for my appetite improved and the headaches passed away. I gave the pills a thorough trial and was cured."

That the principle of the tonic treatment is sound, is proved by the thousands of cures made by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These actual results warrant every sufferer with stomach trouble to give the pills a fair trial.

A diet book regarding the tonic treatment will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

"NO NEWPORT FOR ME," SAYS MRS. T. F. WALSH

Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh.

CHICAGO, May 28.—"I would not live in Newport if that city were given to me," said Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, the Colorado multimillionaire's wife. "I know nothing about what Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs or any other New York society woman may have said about me or mine; whatever it was, it does not matter to us."

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh and their daughter, Miss Evelyn, had been at the Auditorium Annex. They were leaving for Woolhurst, their Summer residence near Denver, when Mrs. Walsh took the opportunity to speak about Newport.

"The story that my husband intended to buy Rosecliff, Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs's home in Newport, is not true," Mrs. Walsh added. "We will never go back there—never."

ROOSEVELT LAUDED BY HENRY CLEWS

NEW YORK, May 28.—At the dedication of the memorial window in Metropolitan Temple, Henry Clews, speaking on "Ex-President Roosevelt; a Great American," declared that Theodore Roosevelt is destined to rank in history as one of the greatest, if not the greatest, of the presidents, after Washington, Lincoln and Grant.

He predicted that Colonel Roosevelt's fame would grow brighter with advancing years, whether or not he is re-elected President.

BREAD PRICES TO SOAR IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, May 28.—North Side master bakers will meet Saturday afternoon to discuss the question of increasing the price of rolls, doughnuts and cookies to twelve cents a dozen because of the continued high price of wheat. The master bakers of the Northwest Side have already raised the price to twelve cents.

MAXWELL WINS IN BRITISH GOLF FINAL

EDINBURGH, Scotland, May 28.—Robert Maxwell beat C. K. Hutchinson by one hole in the final round for the British amateur golf championship to-day at Muirfield. Both are Americans.

TO-DAY'S CABLE NEWS

Warship in Remarkable Run.

PORTSMOUTH.—The battleship-cruiser Invincible in a full speed run averaged over twenty-eight knots an hour, and at one time nearly attained twenty-nine knots.

KING ADVISED TO TURN KICKER

LONDON, May 28.—When the King was in the paddock at Epsom between races an American, from Philadelphia, walked up to him and said:

"Your Majesty, I want to compliment you on the success of your horse. In the Derby you did good. You won. Now, why don't you go up to London and kick out that silly government that is giving you such a bad reputation all over the world? You can do it easily and the English people and Americans will stand by you."

The speaker was William W. Umbenhaur, banker and railroad official, who had just arrived in England and goes to Paris Saturday. He is the same man who created a furor there and in London two years ago with certain checked suits of clothes.

This year he is dressing almost like a human being. He has been in London only two days, and in that time closed a $6,000,000 American deal.

The King made a gracious but non-committal reply.

Mr. Umbenhaur says that if King Edward ever comes to America "Alfred" he is going to vote for him for President.

NEW SHUBERT HOUSES.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Contracts have been signed between J. J. Shubert, representing the Shuberts, and A. R. Pelton and F. C. Schnitzer, representing the Inter-Mountain Theatrical Circuit, by the terms of which the Shuberts will book all their productions next season and those of their allies in the theatres controlled by this circuit. The Inter-Mountain Theatrical Circuit embraces about 100 theatres.

TAFT WINS BARREL OF KRAUT AT FAIR

SANDUSKY, O., May 28.—President Taft holds the ticket that drew a barrel of sourkraut worth $3 at the Elks' fair here. It was presented to him by W. H. Reinhart, president of the Perry Victory and International Peace Centennial Commission, who was in Washington recently.

SEIZES PLANT.

WESTFIELD, May 28.—Charles A. Clark, Jr., of Granville, is held by the police charged with printing, publishing and circulating improper literature. The affidavit was made by Constable Harry S. Hurley of Granville and Officer Ely Sullivan of Westfield, who also seized the entire printing establishment of the Clark Printing Company, and brought it the entire to Westfield on a truck.

'CINDERELLAS' GET PRIZES

Prizes in the Cinderella foot contest of the BOSTON AMERICAN were awarded to-day at the AMERICAN office, No. 82 Summer street. Manager Arthur Houghton of "A Stubborn Cinderella" company was present when the prizes were given out. The winners are:

First prize, golden jewelled slipper—Mrs. Nella Duffy, No. 344 Harvard street, Cambridge.

Second prize, silver scrolled slipper—Miss Ethel G. Voorhies, No. 75 St. Mary street, Boston.

Third prize, $25 cash—Divided between Miss Elizabeth Snow of No. 96 West Elm avenue, Wollaston, and Miss Mamie McDowan of No. 167 Washington street, Cambridge. The judges declared them a tie.

The three special prizes of positions in "A Stubborn Cinderella" company, now playing at the Colonial Theatre, were awarded by Manager Houghton to Miss Lillian M. Hall of No. 371 Washington avenue, Chelsea; Miss Ethel G. Voorhies, winner of the second slipper prize, and Mrs. Mary G. Cox, No. 75 St. Mary street, Boston, sister of Miss Voorhies.

NEW CHARTER LEGALITY HIT

In the House of Representatives to-day Representative Joseph G. Donovan of Charlestown offered an order calling upon the justices of the Supreme Court for an opinion as to the constitutionality of the new Boston charter bill passed by the House.

Mr. Donovan contends that the split referendum provided in the bill makes it unconstitutional.

The Senate will begin debating the charter bill Tuesday. It was rent from the House to the Senate this morning. President Treadway of the Senate ruled that the section requiring certification of appointments of heads of Boston city departments by the State Civil Service Commission would mean an additional expense to the State, and he ordered the bill referred to the Senate Committee on Ways and Means. After considering it less than an hour the committee returned it to the Senate stamped "ought to pass."

TURKEY OPENS DOORS TO JEWS

NEW YORK, May 28.—The Jewish Morning Journal to-day gave out a special cable dispatch from Constantinople which says:

Ahmed Riza, president of the Chamber of Deputies, visited to-day Hahm Pasha, the ritual head of the Jews in Turkey, and on behalf of the Turkish Government extended an invitation to the Jews of Russia and Roumania to migrate to Turkey.

As proof of the good faith of the Turkish Government, Ahmed Riza informed Hahm Pasha that the government would abolish all restrictions against Jewish immigration and, what is still more significant, "will confer full citizenship on Jewish immigrants immediately on their arrival in Turkey."

SALUTES YOUNG MARCHERS

The building of A. Shuman & Co. was decorated for the parade today of the High School regiments, and there was a reviewing stand at its Summer street entrance. The following quotation appeared on a large banner above the stand: "All hail to our young citizen soldiers. We salute them today as the future strength of the Republic, learning now the vital lessons of achievement and discipline which fit them to fulfill their high destiny."

MRS. BROKAW ASKS $2,500

NEW YORK, May 28.—Mary Bland Brokaw, wife of W. Gould Brokaw, the millionaire, who is suing him for a separation, to-day made application to Justice Jaycox in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, for $2,250 a month alimony and $15,000 counsel fees pending a trial of the action. The greatest reticence regarding the claims for alimony was observed both by Frank Ira Pierce, counsel for Mrs. Brokaw, and by John F. McIntyre, counsel for the claimant. Justice Jaycox reserved his decision. Mrs. Brokaw in her suit alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. She declares her husband is worth at least $4,000,000, and that he has an income of $200,000 a year. She accuses her husband of calling her by all kinds of opprobrious epithets at the Hotel Seville, less than two months after their marriage on September 10, 1907. Mrs. Brokaw accused her husband of being intensely jealous of her, and of frequently accusing her of flirting with his men friends. She says that he threatened to shoot her several times and that he subjected her to humiliation of many kinds both here and abroad.

HOW A WOMAN FOUGHT TO MAKE HERSELF GOOD is told fascinatingly in "The Redemption of Ruth" in the SUNDAY AMERICAN.

HOLD YOUTH AS FIREBUG

The lives of nearly a score of people asleep in the Minto, a theatrical lodging house at No. 41 Howard street, West End, were endangered by the act of an incendiary early to-day.

Patrolman Frank Merritt of the Joy street station captured Carmine Cavereita, eighteen years old, of No. 58 Prince street, and locked him up charged with arson, after a lively chase through the West End.

Cavereita was arraigned in the Municipal Court and held in $2,000, going to jail. The police found a can of gunpowder covered with a newspaper soaked with kerosene. Nearby were several oil-soaked towels of the size used in barber shops.

Patrolman Merritt when nearly opposite the "Minto" saw a man about to leave the barber shop of Antonio Carnao on the first floor of the building, which is a three-story brick structure, and at the same time saw the glare of a fire through the tightly-drawn curtains. Taking the situation in, he started across the street after Cavereita, who, when he saw the policeman, broke into a run down Howard street.

The AMERICAN is Boston's great home paper.

DRAPER DRIVER IS FINED AGAIN

Elmer E. Huff, chauffeur for Governor Eben S. Draper, was fined $15 in the Dedham District Court to-day by Judge Emery Gruver for overspeeding on Tuesday, May 18, when he was driving the Governor from Hopedale to Boston. The Governor was with Huff when Policemen Burnett and Sweeney of Wellesley held the car up. To-day Huff came alone to court in the same big car.

This is the second fine which Chauffeur Huff has paid for overspeeding the Governor's car within a week. Less than a week ago he was in the Concord court for going too fast and had to pay $5. On that occasion the Governor was not with the driver.

MILK POOR; $15 FINE.

Frank T. Clarke, of No. 177 Broadway Extension, South Boston, was fined $15 in the South Boston court to-day for having milk in his possession which was not up to the standard. George Harrington paid $5 for not being registered for the sale of milk. He has a store at No. 372 Second street.

SUICIDE FOR LOVE.

STEUBENVILLE, O., May 28.—Crazed because Venus Nunemaker, aged seventeen, had jilted him, John Keyes, aged twenty-one, cut his throat and died at an early hour this morning at the Ellis House.

BABY'S TERRIBLE WATERY ECZEMA

Itching Humor Broke Out on Tiny Mite's Cheeks—Would Tear His Face Till Blood Streamed Down Unless Hands were Bandaged—Spent $50 on Useless Treatments.

CURED BY CUTICURA AT COST OF BUT $1.50

"When my little boy was two and a half months old he broke out on both cheeks with eczema. It was the itchy, watery kind and we had to keep his little hands wrapped up all the time, and if he would happen to get them uncovered he would claw his face till the blood streamed down on his clothing. We called in a physician at once, but he gave an ointment which was so severe that my baby would scream when it was put on. We changed doctors and medicines until we had spent fifty dollars or more and baby was getting worse. I was so worn out watching and caring for him night and day that I almost felt sure the disease was incurable. But finally reading of the good results of the Cuticura Remedies, I determined to try them. I can truthfully say I was more than surprised, for I bought only a dollar and a half's worth of the Cuticura Remedies (Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills), and they did more good than all my doctors' medicines I had tried, and in fact entirely cured him. I will send you a photograph taken when he was fifteen months old and you can see his face is perfectly clear of the least spot or scar of anything. If I ever have this trouble again, I will never think of doctoring but will send for the Cuticura Remedies at once. As it is, I would never think of using any other than Cuticura Soap for my babe. You are at liberty to publish this, it may help some distressed mother as I was helped. Mrs. W. M. Comerer, Burnt Cabins, Pa., Sept. 15, 1908."

Cuticura Soap (25c.), Ointment (50c.), Resolvent (25c.), and Chocolate Coated Pills (25c.), are sold throughout the world. Depots: London, 27, Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 5, Rue de la Paix; Australia, R. Towns & Co., Sydney; South Africa, Lennon, Ltd., Cape Town, Natal, etc.; Potter Drug & Chem. TODAY'S STOCK MARKETS: FINANCIAL NEWS

ACTIVITY IN LOCAL LIST

STATE STREET, May 28.—The local stock market opened active and strong and the large commission houses were buyers of stocks. Attention was again directed to Mass Mining, which rose to 18¾. In sympathy with the strength of Mass. Adventure rose to 10¼. Calumet & Hecla touched 690 and a buying movement in Wyandot put the price to 3⅝.

U. S. Steel Common was again in the public eye, touching 63 both in New York and in the local market. American Telephone spurted from 139 to 140⅝ on fair-sized buying orders. The April exhibit of financial operations had to do with the movement. Amalgamated advanced to 85⅝. Sentiment continues optimistic for the mining shares and higher prices are predicted next month.

A flurry in Bay State Gas on the curb caused the price to advance to 60 cents. It sold at 50 cents yesterday. Dealings were heavy in this speculative and gossip has it that there is likely to be sharp movements in it. There was activity in the high priced issues although slight variations followed.

TWO NEW STEEL MILLS FOR CANADA

PITTSBURG, May 28.—Another move toward centering the iron and steel industry of the United States on the borders of the Great Lakes was made when a contract was closed by the Algoma Steel Company for $500,000 worth of heavy steel machinery, to be delivered at Sault Ste. Marie, Canada, as quickly as possible. It is the intention of the Philadelphians and the Londoners back of this plant to have two immense steel mills there turning out bars and other steel products by November 1.

A DREAM THAT CAME TRUE—The SUNDAY AMERICAN contains a charming story of a blacksmith's daughter, who became a prima donna.

STEEL STILL ON THE CLIMB

By T. C. SHOTWELL.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Steel common made its daily high record at the opening of business in Wall Street to-day. This is the eighth consecutive day on which it has made a high record. The price touched in the first hour of trading was 62⅝. Transactions in it were heavy around that figure.

There were six other new high records, notable among them being Wabash preferred at 54⅝, Wabash common at 21⅝, Malt common at 19¼, Malt preferred at 56, Brunswick at 19¼ and Amalgamated Copper at 85⅝. Trading showed considerable improvement, and Brooklyn Rapid Transit was active among the leaders.

An advance of five cents a hundred pounds in the price of lead imparted fresh vim to the Lead shares, and the preferred was firm at the high record established yesterday. Owing to the fact that the Stock Exchange will close to-night to remain dark until Tuesday morning, shorts were unwilling to cover and covered stocks freely. The advance proved the existence of a very large short interest in the leading issues.

On the Curb Market the perphyry coppers were leaders along with the first-class silver shares.

WALL ST. NEWS FOR INVESTORS

WALL STREET, New York, May 28.—The Morgan party has succeeded in checking an incipient slump. Its intervention has precluded a repetition of Wednesday's losses. The cardinal thing is that the paramount influence in the street decided to step in liquidation and break.

This factor has been successful in preventing a perilous slide, but not in breaking the deadlocked bullpool, so the market continued as dull as it has been for weeks past.

The stagnation is sullenest, however, by a demonstration in the Gould group and in Steel common. The latter has become a talisman of singular efficacy in "saving the situation." Whenever red lights are shown Steel is brought into requisition and it never fails to dispel danger. At the risk of becoming wearisome, it is noted that the test of the market a high record daily, the customary one-eighth above the previous highest.

$ $ $

The high record in Wabash preferred is due largely to the heavy buying of the stock by Judge William H. Moore, the Rock Island chieftain. It is known that Harriman has acquired a very large interest in Rock Island, that the rank for Union Pacific or for personal account is not divulged. The Rock Island people have been picking up Missouri Pacific and Wabash quietly for years, but the fact that E. H. Harriman will in the near future be on the Wabash board, which he already dominates, lends to a belief that a community of interest has been established between Harriman and the Rock Island. It would appear from this that Gould is to be the bride of his friend, but not entirely in their pockets. The Gould stocks that now have the tenderest consideration of all interests, and may be put at the front of the market.

$ $ $

Standard railroad stocks show stubborn strength, but are only moderately active. The public does not seem to realize the importance of the new community of interest in the Northwest between Hill and Harriman.

$ $ $

Wabash, as related some time ago in this column, is to be the dominant property in the Gould system in the future instead of Missouri Pacific, and for that reason its shares have been accumulated in great volumes by one important trust company at least.

$ $ $

Advance of Lead preferred to the high record price of 111¾ created the directors in the belief that they acted wisely in refusing to retire the stock in which they were personally so heavily interested. But although the preferred stock advanced, the common has not declined. It may take a year or more for the important people in the Lead Trust to switch from ownership of preferred to common, and in the meantime there will be no more rumors of retiring the preferred. The business is excellent just now, and there are legitimate reasons for the strength of Lead securities.

$ $ $

The high record on Brunswick stock is due to persistent buying for banking interests. The company owns very valuable waterfront property at Brunswick, Ga. The property has been acquired at times by railroad interests, but none has ever been able to get control of the company. There is talk now of a deal that will develop the Brunswick port and make it necessary to use property of the company for piers.

$ $ $

Official announcement by Erie that it would not issue bonds authorized by the Public Service Commission is a belated confirmation of the report of this fact as published in this column on March 11. That publication really saved Erie from receivership, for which preparations were in progress at that time at the headquarters of the company. The universal shock of the world wide publication of Erie's condition roused the bankers and forced them to provide funds to carry the railroad through.

CARROLLTON, O., BANK CLOSES DOORS

CARROLLTON, O., May 28.—The Carrollton Savings and Banking Company has closed its doors. There was a run on the institution Thursday and Wednesday. It had a paid up capital of $40,000 and deposits of about $160,000. Local capitalists have offered to take over the affairs of the bank at ten cents on the dollar, agreeing to meet all demands.

A new frame apartment house and 4,500 square feet of land on Wesmere street, near Warren street, Roxbury, have been sold by Frederick E. Johnston to Annie L. Schneider. The lease is being sure, is not assessed, but it is understood the asking price of the property was $9,500.

In Dorchester, Charles E. Giles, Jr., has sold to Alfred Pearson the frame dwelling and 5,000 square feet of land at No. 4 Sargent street, near Howard avenue. It is assessed for $6,900; $2,400 is on the land.

Theresa F. Doherty has sold to Eli Dufour about 32,000 square feet of land at the corner of Morton avenue, Helen and Kerwin streets, Dorchester, and to Mr. Dufour a fowl.

The Chapin Farm Agency has sold for the estate of H. K. Garner, his small fruit, vegetable and poultry farm on East street, bordering the Taunton River, in Middleboro, containing 28 acres and land and old-fashioned farmhouse, a commodious barn and two tenements, to two apple orchards. The estate was sold to Emil F. Manuel of Everett, who has already taken possession.

UNITARIANS IN FETE TO-NIGHT

Anniversary week, which has been celebrated by the 300 Unitarian ministers and delegates who have been in Boston since Monday, will end to-night with the annual festival in Tremont Temple starting at 6 p. m.

Hon. William M. Olin, secretary of the Commonwealth, will preside. The speakers will be Rev. A. M. Ritheny of Toledo, O.; Hon. James M. Leathers of Indianapolis, Ind.; General A. W. Greely, U. S. A., and Hon. Carleton Sprague of Buffalo, N. Y. Speaking will begin at 7:15.

Only those who are members of the association will be admitted to the main floor of the Temple, but the general public can purchase tickets for the first and second balconies.

The annual meeting of the Unitarian Sunday School Society was held in King's Chapel to-day. The directors' annual report was read by the president, Rev. Edward A. Horton. The following officers were elected: Rev. Edward A. Horton of Boston, president; Charles A. Murdock of San Francisco and Rev. Augustus M. Lord of Providence, vice presidents; Miss Lodie P. Packer of Cambridge, secretary; Richard Humphreys of Boston, treasurer; Rev. William A. Lawrence of Winchester, Frank H. Burt of Newton, Rev. Clifton M. Grey of Charlestown, S. S. Bedell of James of South Boston and Miss Sara C. Bullard of Dorchester, directors for three years.

UNCLE SAM'S EXPORT WORK

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Less than one-tenth of the manufactures of the United States are exported, while those imported equal in stated value about one-twentieth that of the home product.

This statement is the result of a comparison of the figures of production, exportation and importation of manufactures in the United States presented by the statistical abstract of the United States about to be issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

The figures show that the importation in the year ended June 30, 1908, of all articles classed by the census as manufactures amounted in value to $893,000,000, a sum which equals 8.2 per cent. of the $10,802,000,000 estimated as the net value of all manufactures in 1904.

The imports in the year ended June 30, 1908, of all articles similar to those classed by the census as manufactures were valued at $726,000,000, which equals 5.3 per cent. of the net value of the domestic manufactures of 1904. The share exported of the manufactures of the country seems to have slowly but steadily increased.

EMMA EAMES IS NOW IN FRANCE

PARIS, May 28.—Mme. Emma Eames, whose whereabouts has been puzzling America for almost two weeks, arrived here to-day and left immediately for the south of France.

The prima donna disappeared from Philadelphia, on May 15, immediately after she had been served in an attachment suit brought by Mme. Elsa de Gogorza, wife of Emilio de Gogorza, the famous baritone.

GOTHAM TO CUT INTEREST RATE

New York is in line to follow the example set by conservative Massachusetts and reduce interest on savings bank deposits.

The Suffolk Savings Bank of Boston, one of the biggest institutions for savings in the East, recently reduced its interest rate on deposits from four to three and one-half per cent. Other Massachusetts savings banks are likely to follow.

The speed with which the trend of savings administration in the Bay State is noticed in other States, especially in New York, is shown by developments in Empire State banking to-day. Dispatches from New York quote the following from a speech made by Clark Williams, State superintendent of banks, at a meeting of the Savings Banks Association:

"I consider it my most pressing duty to endeavor to effect a general reduction of the rate of interest in our institutions throughout the State, not only in the interest of the corporations themselves, but in the interest of those who have entrusted their funds to those depositories for safe keeping."

The reduction in the interest rate is deemed necessary because of the running expenses, fixed charges, necessity of carrying the required reserve, the enormous deposits and consequent difficulty in placing deposits profitably and the general business uncertainty on account of the tariff situation and other factors.

Saturday Night Brings Hodgdon, Anderson & Merry's Sale To A Close

A striking tribute to the extraordinary money saving importance of this sale is to be found in the way this immense stock has disappeared. From the size of the purchase it would seem improbable that the end should be so near. But what man, knowing the character of Hodgdon, Anderson & Merry's clothing, would sacrifice such an opportunity to economize. Surely, judging from our sales, few found it possible. As a result, Saturday night brings the sale to a close.

MULLIN HAS MADE GREAT BOX RECORD

George Mullin has pitched eight games this year. He pitched his eighth straight victory Tuesday. He finished one game, making a total of nine in which he participated.

On April 14 he beat Frank Smith and the Chicago White Sox at Bennett Park, 2 to 0, allowing the Sox one hit.

On April 18 he beat the Cleveland Naps at Bennett Park, Wright pitching. The score was 3 to 2 and the Naps secured three hits.

On April 23, in Chicago, he beat the White Sox and Doc White, 3 to 1, the Sox securing four hits in eleven innings.

On April 28th in Cleveland, he defeated Young and Falkenberg and the Naps, 8 to 1, allowing but four hits.

On May 2, in Chicago, he defeated Frank Smith and the White Sox, 6 to 0, allowing ten hits.

On May 5, in St. Louis, he pitched to the last man up for George Speer, credit for the Tigers' 7 to 1 victory went to Speer.

On May 6, in St. Louis, he beat Bailey and Powell and the Browns, 7 to 3, allowing seven hits.

On May 20, at Bennett Park, he defeated Plank, Vickers and Dygert and the Athletics, 5 to 3, allowing nine hits.

On May 25 he beat Washington, 7 to 4, allowing but six hits.

Why Tailor-Made Garments Cost 3 Times the Prices Asked for Ready-Made

It is the difference in workmanship that counts, in such goods, a few dollars is paid for the making of an entire suit. In tailor-made, still takes pieces—seven over one. The shoulders, lapels, collar and other parts, subject to strain, are hand-fastened, the thousands of stitches asserting the experience gained by fifty years' study. In our values, unrivalled for the price, we have the benefit of this study and perfection of high-class workmanship. Our range of cloth gives you this high quality of clothes for about the same prices you pay ordinarily for factory work. As the best argument is price, we pick the following from the 2,000 garments: Imp. Serg. WAID BACK AT PRACTICE WITH HARVARD CREW

ITHACA, N. Y., May 28.—All doubt as to Waid's ability to row his accustomed position at No. 7 oar in the Harvard 'varsity against Cornell next Monday afternoon was set at rest when Waid appeared with the other Harvard crew men to take their first practice on the lake.

There was a drizzling rain on when the crew went out, but Dr. Ladd, who is here with the oarsmen in his official capacity as crew physician, assured Coach Wray that Waid could row with no danger of any recurrence of the slight touch of tonsilitis that had kept him out of Colorado junior out of the boat the first three days of the week.

Waid said that he felt perfectly recovered, and the ultimate hope is that this will help him still more, for Harvard crews almost always take on two or three pounds of flesh per capita during their biannual visits.

FELLSWAY HORSEMEN OFFER BIG CARD

Four professional races for purses of $75 and five amateur events for prizes have been arranged by the Fellsway Driving Club for its gala day of racing, on May 31, at Combination Park, Medford, sixty-three horses having been entered. The star feature all promises excellent sport, with Louise K., 2:08¼; Edwin K., 2:08¼; Alatrice, 2:10½, and Mardel, 2:16¼, to battle for the honors.

Of the thirteen entered in the 2:30 class, Belle Sherwood is picked by the talent as the best in form. However, she will well have what she has been to the races, with such swift pacers as Kingwood Jr., Alatrice, Ford, Wild Fern, etc., opposed to her. Five will be in the 2:17 event, and the public will be warm, with Bonnie Belle Major M. and Guy F. the favorites. Eight are down to start in the 2:25 class, and should Bonnie Belle elect to take the word in this race, she ought to be the winner.

Much interest centres in the special race for the suppers, owners to drive. The officials of the club are named their fastest flyers, Ginger R., by President Brooks; Edith R., by Treasurer Linenfield; Decima Deane, by Secretary Morrison, and General Flake, by Director Croft.

The regular Saturday matinee will take place at Combination Park to-morrow afternoon, the events being those postponed from a week ago.

ATHLETIC PROGRAM BY JOHN L. CLUB

At a meeting of the John L. Sullivan Benevolent and Athletic Association the new officers elected were: President, Thomas H. Tyrrell; vice-president, Professor Jim Kennedy; financial secretary, Frank Mosesi; secretary, W. R. Clesse; treasurer, John Allen; sergeant-at-arms, George Kuhn.

The entertainment committee has arranged for an athletic and physical culture exhibition at the rooms on Wednesday evening, June 2. Some of the best-known athletes will attend. This is the first exhibition and has among its members many representative business men of the South End.

Applications for membership can be had at the club rooms, No. 1,031 Washington street, any evening, between 7 and 11 o'clock.

WAKEFIELD HORSE RACING ON MAY 31

The Quannapowitt Gentlemen's Driving Club will open its autumn races at the Quannapowitt Park, Wakefield, on Monday, May 31. Twenty-seven horses have been entered in the eight racing events and many good heats are promised. The matching committee having performed their duties well and the track being in excellent condition, in addition to the racing events there will be exhibition of ladies' driving and gentlemen's road horses, family turn outs and matched pairs.

HOW A WOMAN FOUGHT TO MAKE HERSELF GOOD is told fascinatingly in "The Redemption of Ruth" in the SUNDAY AMERICAN.

HAS "CHARLEY HORSE."

The Yankees will be minus the services of "Wee Willie" Keeler, who fell captain, for several weeks. It was learned to-day that the most scientific batsman in the game was suffering from a severe case of "charley horse." His position will be guarded by Charley Hemphill until Clyde Engle returns. While not in good health, Hemphill had to be pressed into service, for he is the only man outside of the regulars, who understands the field.

Manager Stallings received a wire today from Pitcher Cloud stating he was the former Brownie stated that he would be ready for work next month and that he would point the Hilltoppers in New York on June 10. With Cloud going good the Yankees can boast of the best pitching staff in the league.

FAST COCHATO YEARLINGS.

Hugh Milton, superintendent at Johnson Farm, Milton, has received a letter from a horseman at Lexington, Ky., stating that a yearling by Cochato has paced a quarter in :37 seconds, a 2:28 gait, and another yearling trotted an eighth in 21 seconds, a 2:48 gait.

BEN WALKER WILL DRIVE.

Those of W. G. Durfee's present string of horses that he will not bring East will be left in charge of Ben Walker, who will race them in California.

YOUNG KID BROAD WINS.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—Young Kid Broad outboxed and outfought Charley Twin Miller in 10 rounds at the Broadway A. C. Miller received a terrible beating, but was still being nearly closed at the close of the bout. He made a desperate rally in the fourth round, but Broad came back good and strong in the fifth and sixth.

WOLCOTT HAS HARD GAME.

On Saturday afternoon the Jackson A. C. of Charlestown, with Roy Greene of Eagles in the box, will tackle the undefeated Roger Wolcott A. A., at Franklin Field. Dan Sullivan will twirl for the home team with J. Sullivan on the receiving end.

BURNS-JOHNSON FILMS AT COLUMBIA

At a big cost Manager Harry Farren of the Columbia Theatre has secured the Johnson-Burns fight films of that championship battle in Sydney.

The pictures are especially clear and show every blow that was struck in the fourteen rounds. The pictures are being shown in different sets of films in Chicago, New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Besides the pictures of the fight itself there are many scenes thrown on the screen of the camps of both men and the whole Columbus an evening's entertainment.

As Monday is a holiday there will be three performances at 3, 7 and 9 o'clock.

HYLAND SAYS HE WILL WEAR NELSON DOWN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—If other things prove equal in the Battling Nelson-Dick Hyland fight on Saturday, Hyland is confident that superior condition will carry him through to victory. Dick is quoted as saying that he expects to wear down Nelson somewhere between the twentieth and thirtieth rounds. But he is not banking on the thing running out that way.

There is a Marathon flavor to every particle of work that Dick engages in, and he fully believes that if the occasion requires he will be able to box the entire forty-five rounds and finish strong. Hyland went out on the road in the morning and indulged in a series of sprints. He will do the lightest of work in the afternoon.

Manager Perkins expects to send his boy to bed on Friday night weighing 133 pounds. Drying out will do the rest, and then will be all that is necessary for him before he is called upon to weigh 133 pounds on Saturday afternoon.

Light work was the order of the day at Miller's. Nelson was on the road for an hour in the morning and after lunch he played base with the members of his crew. Boxing there was none.

The Battler balanced the beam at 134 pounds after his morning run-down, and is out out boxing and other strenuous work in order to get himself at the right edge.

As a usual thing the big event at Coffroth's arena begins at 2:30, but in the case of the Nelson-Hyland bout the hours have been changed and the men will not start until 3 o'clock. This, it is said, was done at the request of some labor unions, whose members wish to take in the bout.

Betting on the fight is becoming more brisk hourly and before ring time the champion may pick a 3-1 favorite. It is now is a 10-4 choice. This is the wagering that he will be regarded as of the instance, but there is plenty of Hyland money and even at that both men will still be fighting at twenty-five rounds. There is considerable interest in the mill and anything short of a $15,000 house will be a disappointment to Promoter Coffroth.

RED SOX TAKE REST AND THEN PLAY ATHLETICS

This is an off day for the Red Sox, the first date of the season on which they are not scheduled to play a game. They are on their way from Detroit to Philadelphia, where they open a hard series of five games to be played in three days with the Athletics. The Boston men were disgruntled at the weather man for producing the rain that postponed yesterday's game with the Tigers for they wanted another chance at the leaders before rubbing up against the Athletics.

The outlook is bright once again for the Red Sox for Eddie Cicotte, who has been out of the game for some with time a sprained ankle, Joe Wood, the youngster who showed big league caliber, more than ordinary, in his work during the spring practice and who has been laid up with sickness since the season opened and is yet to pitch his first major league game, and Jake Stahl the big first sacker are all expected to get back into the lineup during the Philadelphia series.

After leaving Philadelphia the Red Sox return directly to Boston and open a four-game series with Detroit on Decoration Day. They remain here for almost a month receiving all the Western teams on their first invasion of the East.

EARL & WILSON

TAFT INVITED TO THE LOWELL MOTOR RACES

By J. C. KERRISON.

President Taft is to be invited to witness the big motor contest to be held at Lowell during the week of the motor carnival. The officers of the Lowell Automobile Club, who are confident that the coming tournament will be the greatest event of its kind ever held in the East, have virtually determined upon doing their utmost to secure the presence of the President at that big event. His being here in the East at that time and his known interest in all matters pertaining to automobiling make the acceptance of the invitation all the more possible. The latest is to build a royal box in the centre of the grandstand directly opposite to the starting and finishing line and to invite the Governors of all the New England States to grace the event by their presence.

The preliminaries for the big carnival are progressing very rapidly, and as things now look there is every reason to believe that the State Legislature will enact the necessary law to permit the holding of the big motor race. When a hearing was given on the matter there was not a single remonstrant, and the committee could certainly see no grounds upon which it could report otherwise than favorable on the measure.

J. W. Bowman, the New England distributor of the Stevens-Duryea cars, has had such an excellent business season and disposed of his entire allotment of cars that he has forgotten all business in a chase after the festive and elusive trout. Mr. Bowman never does things by halves. Whether it be business or pleasure, he enters into the same with a whole-souled purpose, and so the elusive inhabitants of the streams and lakes will need watch out.

* * *

The new record of sixteen hours forty-five minutes for the 500 miles between Los Angeles and San Francisco, established by a Thomas car Sunday, May 23, was made on Diamond tires and Mirak rims. The old record, from which thirty-two minutes are clipped, had stood for more than a year. The character of the roads considered, Sales Manager W. R. Miller of the Diamond Rubber Company considers this record one of the most interesting tire achievements of the year. The average speed was a fraction better than thirty-seven miles an hour.

There are now in hand thirty-two paid entries for the 1909 Glidden tour contests. This is within two of being four times as many entries as were in hand on the corresponding date of 1908 and 1907, showing a much more active and earlier interest. The entries already at hand include the following cars: Three Moline, four Premier, two Brush, one Hummobile, one Marmon, two Marmon, four E. M. F., three Chalmers-Detroit, four Pierce, one American Simplex, one Jewel, one Glide, two Stoddard-Dayton, one Rapid Truck.

The entries close Sunday 15 with Chairman Hower at No. 700 Main street, Buffalo. Entries made after June 15 up to July 1 will cost $100 extra, or $300 total.

BOWLERS OFF TO NEW YORK

There was a big crowd of admirers at the South Station last night seeing the Boston teams off for the national bowling tournament, now in progress at Madison Square Garden, and it is needless to say that the best wishes of all went with them. The teams from this city are the Faneuils and Posts.

James P. Puffer of the Arlington Boat Club was surprised in receiving from his friends in the market district an elegant traveling bag. In expressing his pleasure he stated that he could not see with the good luck associated with the gift how the Posts could lose in winning one of the handsome prizes.

Jack Shrede of the Boylston alleys intends educating the bowlers from sections of the country otherwise than New England to the beauties of candle pin bowling. With this in view he tries to New York a picked team for the purpose of giving a thin pin exhibition before the hundreds of bowlers who have never before had the opportunity of seeing the sport.

It was anticipated that the Worcester Odd Fellows would visit Lynn this week in deciding the best of the secret society in getting high scores. However, the matter has been called off through several of the Worcester players being unable to get away. It is planned that early in the Fall a series will be mapped out as a boost to bowling in the fraternal line.

BALL SEASON OPENS AT MIDDLEBORO

The opening of the baseball season at Middleboro takes place Saturday when the Waltham team will be the attraction. On Monday there will be a double bill of diamond stunts. Middleboro will stack up with the Quincy nine, which made trouble last season.

BIG GAME TO-DAY FOR FOR BOSTON COLLEGE

At 3 o'clock this afternoon on the Massachusetts avenue grounds the Boston College baseball nine will clash with the fast St. Anselm's team of Manchester, N. H. The college men expect a hard game, as the New Hampshire boys are considered to have a fast team.

"Chick" Maloney, who was recently elected captain following the resignation of Bernard O'Kane, will pitch for the college and Crisaf will catch. Either Supple or McDonald will cover the initial bag, while Corbett and Temmie Boyle will cover second and short, respectively. Burke will play in the right garden, while "Big" Egan, who has been hitting the ball so this year, will play centre-field. If O'Kane is not able to get in the game McMahon, formerly of Thayer Academy, will cop left field.

The Miracle of Motherhood

What Will It Do for May Yohe?

By ELLA WHEELER WILCOX

Two Sinners

Copyright, 1909, by American-Journal-Examiner

THERE was a man, it was said one time,
Who went astray in his youthful prime.
Can the brain keep cool and the heart keep quiet
When the blood is a river that's running riot?
And boys will be boys, the old folks say,
And the man is the better who's had his day.

THE sinner reformed, and the preacher told
Of the prodigal son who came back to the fold.
And Christian people threw open the door,
With a warmer welcome than ever before.
Wealth and honor were his to command,
And a spotless woman gave him her hand.

And the world strewed their pathway with blossoms abloom,
Crying, "God bless ladye, and God bless groom!"

THERE was a maiden who went astray
In the golden dawn of her life's young day.
She had more passion and heart than head,
And she followed blindly where fond Love led.
And Love unchecked is a dangerous guide
To wander at will at a fair girl's side.

THE woman repented and turned from sin,
But no door opened to let her in.
The preacher prayed that she might be forgiven,
But told her to look for mercy—in Heaven.
For this is the law of the earth, we know;
That the woman is stoned, while the man may go.
A brave man wedded her after all,
But the world said, frowning, "We shall not call."

—From "Poems of Pleasure."

MAY YOHE, one of the most notorious women of the stage, has given birth to a child out in Portland, Ore. It has been adopted by a family in that city and will be reared as the son of Edward Thomas and wife.

May Yohe was once Lady Francis Hope, and afterward became the wife of Captain Putnam Bradlee Strong.

Both men were of a type that discredits any nation—weak, self-indulgent men, badly reared by unwise parents.

Having been the consort of two such men, one an English "lord," one an American man of fortune, May Yohe experienced almost every phase of shame and degradation possible to a woman.

Before she married either man she had been a stage favorite, and had known many other undesirable men, "not wisely, but too well."

Yet of May Yohe an American man with a wide knowledge of the world and of humanity said recently:

"I remember her as a young girl, in London, more than twenty years ago. I used to see her acting there. She was a splendid type of the American girl, with good instincts and good intelligence. She would have been a pride to her sex and her profession if she had associated with the right kind of men.

And now May Yohe has had the crowning experience of womanhood—she has become a mother.

It will be interesting study to watch the future of this child. It is my belief that children inherit the suppressed tendencies of their parents. They rarely exhibit the qualities which the parents put into active use.

That which we exhaust in ourselves we do not bestow upon our offspring.

May Yohe must have felt an inward desire for a better life than the one she lived. All these good instincts and qualities were perverted by association with degenerate and worthless specimens of mankind. But they were not destroyed. The good within us can never be destroyed.

Long ago May Yohe must have yearned for a chance to begin her life over and to establish it on firmer ground.

Such a chance is not given to woman as easily as it is given to man; but now the best of May Yohe, the real qualities and virtues so long suppressed and unused, may be given to the world in this child born in her maturity.

There have been many instances where motherhood has meant a rebirth to the woman—where the whole nature of a weak and erring woman has changed to strength and virtue by the great miracle of motherhood.

Perhaps when this child grows to maturity he may find his own mother has become worthy of him.

The world is ready to give May Yohe a chance. It is more than probable that she is ready to use that chance to live a life from now onward which will be useful and womanly.

It will be where are the Christian men and women ready to offer the helping hand?

If Paris Lived To-day

By Nell Brinkley

No. 9—Would He Give the Apple "For the Fairest" to This Golden Girl?"

"After all this hair and gold of skin is the marvel of this Summer-Woman—her eyes."

PARIS gingerly mred a crooked middle-finger around to where I could see. A great golden butterfly brooded there, with rich brown velvet polka dots on his wings and a light, exquisite, shivering vibrating their gauze edges. An early Summer butterfly—golden and embroidered and palpitating! Paris watched it with distended pupils and his breath held.

"She is like this," he sended. "An early Summer butterfly—golden and embroidered."

"Blond again?" I giggled.

"Yes—but different," swore Paris, "different from any before!"

"You wouldn't think there could be so many dark-haired ones and all different—you wouldn't think there could be so many with fair hair and yet all so different!

"Gold is Summer. But some women are too pale a gold for the spirit of Summer. Their hair is taffy or silvery and their eyes are gray or blue. Some are too rich—their hair is red and their eyes are black. The first might be fading and the last—Autumn.

"And this one—oh, shades of fair blond women!—she is the perfect Summer-Woman. She is tall and round. An indolent, dreamy, indoor woman of white shoulders and slidy, slippery silk—and a swinging, free, tumble-haired, awake, unafraid woman of the outdoors; she is one just as much as the other.

"Her hair is as rich a gold as the ring you wear—bright glittering, gold-dusty hair. Her skin is thick—and colored like rich cream, without a cloud of the smallest, tenderest pink anywhere in it.

"Her mouth is full and red as poppy-stain, and she has a little way of puckering it close together. Her nose is a stubby, tilted little chap, with wide nostrils, and the little trench of her upper lip runs down rather sharply from it in the saucy French fashion to the scallops of her mouth.

"Her cheek bones are high, her cheeks rather flat, and her chin as round as the nubbin of a pear, with a dent in it half way between its point and her lower lip.

"And now after all this gold—gold hair and gold skin—and this poppy of mouth, is the marvel that makes her the Summer-Woman, the Summer-Woman of different tones of gold—her eyes. They are just brown velvet. Smooth, soft eyes, warm and rich and golden-brown, with lashes and high brows the same color.

"And there is your golden woman—the pale gold of her skin, the deeper, bright gold of her hair, and the rich deepening of gold itself—brown. Shades of other fair blonde women—bah!

"And she is tender—as tender as her coloring—smiling, happy-hearted, kind; a thing of laughter and sympathy. She is as quick as a bird to play with—and as slow and dreamy as wats music that steals out to you when you are very tired on the veranda that night.

"Little boys glorify her. Little boys a little bigger—a little space of years younger than she—tell her of their love-troubles and fall in love with her under the brown gaze of her eyes.

"Little boys with a bald spot coming lose their wits over her. Little boys with frosty hair and a little shake in their voices wag her around and propose to her before every dinner time. All the little Billys. For she has 'a way wid her.' A way of dressing her brown eyes, and then suddenly it widening them, and while they widen she gathers her mouth into a pucker. Just a way with her. A golden, shimmery way with the kindness and gentleness behind the butterfly. An early Summer butterfly—golden and velvet and brown—and embroidered; with a soul."

The shivering winged shling on Paris's hand palpitated more violently, faster and faster, suddenly stilled its wings, and rose; and bent off, a fluttering bit of gold against the green.

NELL BRINKLEY.

Courtship Made Too Easy

Our Grandmothers Knew Best

By DOROTHY DIX

WITH all the accomplishments that the modern girl is taught, she lacks the one art in which her grandmother excelled—the art of catching a husband. It is sadly true that there are no such belles as there once were.

Grandmamma might have picked and chosen among a score of good offers, and when her granddaughter compares this retinue of suitors with the two or three men in her own train who are almost offensively frank in declaring that their attentions are without intentions and who knows that she will be dead lucky if she gets even a single matrimonial offer, she wonders why this is time, and why masculine hearts are more impregnable than they were of old.

It is certainly not because of the deterioration of women. Never in the history of the world, not even among the ancient Greeks, was the percentage of female pulchritude so high as it is now.

Women of To-day Charming

So, if man seeks for beauty in a wife, he may shut his eyes and make a grab in the dark in any group of women, and be sure of getting one who, had she lived in his grandfather's time, would have had all the poets writing sonnets to her eyebrows, and all the beaux fighting duels for her smiles.

Women are more intelligent than they were before, more versatile, more sympathetic, more companionable. Now women herself to entertain man, and he has no fad or fancy to which she is not able and willing to minister.

Perhaps the chief reason that men show a disinclination to marry may be accounted for by the freedom of companionship that prevails between the sexes. In the olden time, when the only way a man could enjoy a woman's society was by marrying her, he was in a rush to hustle with her to the altar, but when custom permits a man to monopolize a woman's evenings, when they may spend long days together on the golf links, when they may attend the theatres and parties together, and even enjoy the pleasure of a little meal for two in a perfectly proper restaurant, the man is in no hurry to wed. He has, in reality, as much of the woman's company as he wants without the necessity of assuming her bills, or giving her the right to lecture him.

Too Anxious to Marry.

Another reason why men are less eager about marrying now than they used to be is because the modern feminine Barkis is too willing. Many things change, but human nature never changes, and the primitive instinct of man is for the chase. Woman have forgotten this masculine peculiarity.

Probably our grandmothers were just as anxious to get married as any girl is now, but they had the gumption to affect a coy and reluctant attitude, and because a man believed that it was a difficult task to capture the citadel of a maiden's affection, he wooed her with fire and passion, and all the energy of which he was capable.

Olden Courtships Romantic

How is it now? The modern girl has left him in no doubt, and so he takes us trouble in wooing her.

Our grandmammas also had another advantage that their granddaughters lack—our great grandmammas knew the value of the unattainable.

When a young man came a-wooing the entire family didn't take to the back yard, so as to give him a chance. The stern parents stood guard over a girl and put the lover to his wits' end to steal a moment's converse with her, or press her hand in secret.

In a word, they made courtship romantic and difficult, and in consequence there were many elopements and few old maids.

The Aeronaut's Diary

By C. B. QUINCY

CAN'T see why people stick to the old antiquated automobiles and motor boats; might as well go about on one of the old velocipedes.

See Wrong flew five miles yesterday in three minutes, so I ordered one of his aeroplanes.

The aeroplane arrived yesterday, but I couldn't find it around the place, although we hunted all over for it. At last I asked the gardener if nothing had come, and he said that a half-finished chicken coop had been left at the place. Took the wire net off it and shooed out the chickens.

Have to hoist the aeroplane off the ground with a derrick to get it started. Was being hoisted up in it to-day when the fool man running the engine let go suddenly.

Feel pretty much shaken up, but the doctor says I am all right unless there are some internal injuries.

Aeroplane fixed for $78.80.
Doctor's bill, $18.90.

Hoisted successfully this time, but just as I was about to start my motor, the derrick pulled us up too tight and we turned over.

It was only a twenty-foot fall, but it hurt me a whole lot.

Wonder they don't get a machine that rises gracefully from the ground, like a lark about to wing its way to the heavens.

Doctor's bill, $73.21.

Derrick worked all right to-day.

We were hoisted up and I signalled the man to let us go. He signaled that page of it all right, but I had completely forgotten to start the motor, and we hit the ground rather heavily.

The aeroplane was patched up successfully—$276.00.

Doctor's bill, $17.55.

Started the motor going too soon to-day, and we flew round and round the derrick for two hours. Feel sure that had we been free we should have made a wonderful flight.

Everything worked perfectly to-day but the steering apparatus. Shot down to the ground in a graceful curve.

Aeroplane repairs, $750.00.
Doctor's bill, $73.21.

Lent the aeroplane to a friend to-day.
Flowers, $27.00.

THE HOUSE NEXT DOOR

Novelized from J. Hartley Manners's great play by the same title.

By JOSEPH O'BRIEN.

CHAPTER IV.

The Pride of Parenthood.

SIR JOHN'S anger at Cecil was entirely superficial. He was secretly delighted at the tremendous success of the young man, as proud of it as either Lady Margaret or Ulrica. But he revered this with a mask of hostility that had a most dispiriting effect on the other members of the family.

After the departure of Cecil, Lady Margaret and Ulrica piled the breakfast things on a tray which Vining silently removed. Sir John walked up and down the floor, muttering to himself. He waited until Vining had gone out to pause in his walk, take a cigar from his case and beckon to his daughter.

"Ulrica, come here. Tell me frankly, word of honor. Never mind what the others say. They don't matter that (snapping his fingers vigorously). Is Cecil any good? Eh? Out with it."

"I never heard any one sing like him," Ulrica protested warmly.

"That might mean anything," Sir John said, unsatisfiedly. "Good or bad?"

"He's magnificent."

"Think so, eh?" asked the old man, his pleasure ill concealed. "Ulrica, get three seats for us to-morrow night. But in as dark a box as possible," he added, sourly enough, as Ulrica gave a joyful exclamation. "I don't want to be seen."

"Mother, we're going to the opera to-morrow night to hear Cecil!" Ulrica cried wildly. "Father's going, too."

"Oh, John, you've forgiven Cecil," she said.

"Now, my dear, don't do that," he said testily. "You know it annoys me exceedingly. No, I've not forgiven him. I'll wait until I hear him sing first. That may be harder to forgive than his disobedience. Where are the matches?"

He waved his cigar around, and as Lady Margaret drew away he walked over to the mantel and writing table, knocking things right and left peevishly.

"Your goodness sake tell Vining to leave them where they can be seen."

Sir John Is Proud of Cecil.

Ulrica found them and Lady Margaret withdrew, and as he struck a match he called Ulrica again.

"Ulrica, you think the rascal has some thing in him besides cheek, eh?"

"He's among the finest singers in the world," she assured him.

"Bear me," puffing out smoke. "That'll do."

Ulrica joined her mother and the old Baronet walked up and down the morning room, puffing his cigar savagely and muttering to himself. On the floor lay a loaf from Sir Isaac's wreath. Sir John picked it up gingerly, dropped it on the table and carefully dusted his hands.

"Sir Isaac," he muttered with scornful emphasis on the Sir. "Cecil to stay for him."

He stopped in his walk before one of the handsome portraits on the walls. It was a portrait of Disraeli.

"Benjamin Disraeli, Lord Beaconsfield," he said. "Another Jew. They even penetrate into our government. Out of this room he goes."

He resumed his march and his mutterings, idly fingering objects that came in his way. On the table he found a book. He paused to read the title, "Children of the Ghetto," by Israel Zangwill.

"Damn the Ghetto," he shouted flinging the book across the room.

More Race Prejudice.

"My son a singer," he mused. "A tramp, bawling songs in the street, is his equal."

He fingered a sheet of music and glanced at the title, reading:

"'Prelude by Rubenstein.' Rubenstein! Another Jew. What in the name of all that's horrible is this?"

His eye had caught a photograph which had been sent to Cecil that morning. It depicted a heavy, brutish-looking man, in tights costume, and was inscribed:

"To my pupil, Mr. Cotswold, from Jake Blumenthal, heavyweight champion of England."

"Jake Blumenthal! Another of 'em! Put there to annoy me!"

He threw it on the floor and was in the act of stamping vigorously on it with both feet, his appearance resembling that of a fig dancer, when Vining glided in noiselessly. Sir John fairly screamed at him:

"What do you want? Can't you make a noise when you come in? Don't creep about like a cat. What do you want?"

"A gentleman to see Mr. Cecil."

"A gentleman! You surprise me. Who is he?" snatching a card from the salver Vining was presenting him and reading, "Mr. Walter Lewis." Lewis! Lewis! I wonder if he's another of 'em. Well, don't stand there. Show him in and then tell Mr. Cecil. Nothing but Hebrews around me," he snapped resentfully.

Vining entered and announced Mr. Walter Lewis. The visitor entered in a perfect glow. He was rubicund, with pronounced Semitic features and an occasional lapse into the Jewish accent. His manner was aggressive and his attire somewhat loud. He wore a silk hat, frock coat, very tight trousers, spats, a red necktie, and his cheeks were round and rosy. He walked well into the room, his silk hat in his hand, smiling with self-assurance and humming an operatic air before he observed the Baronet.

Sir John, who had been standing by the settle, majestic in his dressing robe, walked over to him and shook his finger at him. In the tone of one who accuses another of the gravest possible offence the Baronet said, gravely:

"Sir, you are a Jew, sir."

(To be continued to-morrow.)

80 AND 82 SUMMER ST., BOSTON, MAY 28, 1909.

THE INFAMOUS CHARTER AND THE INIQUITOUS BOSSES

United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge's charter, under which the city of Boston is to be governed in the future, passed the House without difficulty. The ways were greased and easy, and the charter slipped through without the slightest trouble.

NEVER BEFORE in the history of Massachusetts was the POWER OF THE BOSSES so clearly shown.

The infamous charter ROBS BOSTON OF HOME RULE; takes away from the voters every right that they now enjoy; makes a monkey of the man who happens to be "Mayor"; gives to a State commission the power to manage the municipality as it pleases; aims only to perpetuate the power of Henry Cabot Lodge in office and to permit him to strut about in the limelight as "the scholar in politics," when he is in reality the most practical ward politician that any slum city ever produced.

It gives to Lodge's coterie of friends offices, power and emoluments.

IT KILLS POPULAR GOVERNMENT. It puts an end to home rule. It will put in office a set of manikins, and will do more perhaps to retard the growth of Boston than any other measure that could have been devised.

Some months ago the Herald of this city began to ask the question: "What's the matter with Boston?" Many answers were given.

THE ANSWER TO-DAY IS—TOO MUCH HENRY CABOT LODGE.

And the Herald's editorials, we regret to say, grossly misrepresent the facts about the charter. This one-time powerful newspaper, in an editorial on Thursday discussing the passage of the charter in the House, wrote of the "victory of the people," of "the defeat of the politicians" and the restoration of the "power of self-government."

COULD ANYTHING BE FURTHER FROM THE FACTS?

The charter as it passed the House was not altered one jot or tittle as it came from the Committee on Metropolitan Affairs. All the PUBLIC INFLUENCE that had been used to seek the amendment of its most vicious parts was thrown away.

NO ATTENTION was paid to that great body of merchants that marched up to Beacon Hill, PLEADED FOR A REAL REFERENDUM and asked that THE PEOPLE be allowed to pass upon the charter itself. These gentlemen represented all that is good and progressive in the commercial life of Boston.

After they marched up the hill, they marched down again, and the bosses laughed at them.

NOT A SINGLE SUGGESTION THAT THEY MADE WAS ACCEPTED.

This must be the great popular victory that the Herald has in mind.

The Republican machine in Massachusetts now has its strangle-hold upon the city of Boston. Henry Cabot Lodge is absolutely in control of the entire machinery. He is more in control than Murphy is of Tammany Hall in New York, for even in that corrupt and despised political organization there is still a PRETENSE OF HOME RULE AND POPULAR GOVERNMENT. Behind "the scholar in politics" in Massachusetts is as keen and alert a ward politician as Murphy is in New York.

HOW LONG WILL THE PEOPLE TOLERATE LODGE'S KIND OF MACHINE POLITCS?

Summer Tours in Ireland

—AND ON—

Alcoholism as a Disease

This article was written for the American just before he sailed abroad

By DR. C. H. PARKHURST

RICHARD CROKER has undertaken the interesting enterprise of turning the current of Summer travel in the direction of Ireland.

The idea is a rather happy one. He has specialty in mind, of course, such of his countrymen as are now resident in this country, but it would be to the interest and enlightenment of those as well who are not Irish if they would vary their repeated Summer tours through England, Scotland and the Continent by interpolating for a single season a visit to the home of saints, song and distress, separated from England by many leagues of water and alienated from England by many centuries of oppression.

While it is a country to be visited because of its natural attractions—its romantic County Wicklow, its Connemara, so desolate in parts as to be fascinating; its Lakes of Killarney, which are soothingly beautiful rather than stimulatingly so; its rugged west coast and the stupendous output of rock magnificence (the Giant's Causeway) which distinguishes County Antrim—yet none entertaining than the country itself are the people, its ladies, who are the perfection of ladyhood; its gentlemen, who are knightly by nature; its poor, who are as rich in heart as they are pinched in pocket—all classes, wealthy and indigent, overflowing with the genius of hospitality.

The Irish are lovable even if they do not make a great success of themselves till after they have left their bogs and their misfortunes and struck their roots down into the more generous soil of American civilization and American politics.

Mental Intemperance Bad as Too Much Drink.

SOME paragraphs recently printed in this column on the subject of "Alcoholism Considered as a Disease" seem to have excited the indignation, not to say unrestrained passion, of some zealous brethren, who would take alcoholics altogether out of the category of invalids and adjudge them to the ranks of sinners pure and simple, and of the most abandoned and unredeemable type.

It is not necessary for our critics to become hot over the matter, for to be pronounced intemperate by the intensity of one's moral and religious convictions is almost as bad as to be made intemperate by other kinds of intoxicants—fully as bad.

Alcoholism is the name given to the physically disordered condition in which a man finds himself in consequence of an excessive use of spirituous liquors.

Since the previous article was composed it has been a matter of interest and advantage to the writer to consult upon the matter such members of the medical fraternity as Drs. W. H. Thomson, Charles L. Dana, Joseph E. Janvrin, M. S. Gregory, W. Gilman Thompson and M. Allen Starr.

While certain of these have laid special stress upon moral debility or inherent viciousness as the predisposing cause of the alcoholic's disordered physical state, there is with them all a distinct recognition of bodily deprivation.

One of the five mentioned, whose connection with an institution that annually receives several thousand alcoholics under its care enables him to speak with authority, writes as follows:

"Replying to your inquiry, permit me to say that habitual drunkenness is undoubtedly considered as a disease. Alcohol is essentially a destructive poison, and, like other poisons, its continuous use produces pathological changes in the tissues of the body and brain, causing disease and deterioration of the mind."

Treating It as Disease Gives the Best Results.

Still another one writes: "I have for a long time held the opinion, gained from many years of practice and a pretty careful observation and examination as to the history of the cases that have come under my care, that alcoholism is practically and essentially a disease.

"Whether inherited or acquired, it certainly becomes sooner or later a diseased condition, and our best results in the care of alcoholics comes from treating it as such.

"I believe that the medical fraternity at the present time look at this subject in the same light, and its treatment is becoming more satisfactory year by year."

The average physician may not appreciate certain facts that are evident to the layman who seeks to reclaim the drunkard by bringing him under the power of the gospel.

No more will the latter be able to appreciate certain facts that are evident to the physician.

The drunkard is in so deep a hole that both professions had better take hold together and pull him out, rather than that one should belittle the other's gospel, or the man with the gospel make up faces at the doctor's medicine chest.

Little Bobbie's Pa

By William F. Kirk

WEN I calm hoam last nite, Pa was thare ahed of me. That was kind of funny, beekaus Pa hardly ever gits heam ahed of me.

Hello, Pop, I sed. Then Pa got mad. To whom are you speeking, he sed. I am speeking to you, I sed. Then doant ever speek to me eggsept in that way, sed Pa. I am now a poet, Pa sed, having rote a sonnet, & I doant wish to have my child call me Pop. Pop is not a good name for a poet, Pa sed.

Stop abusing our child, sed Ma, & tell us about that wunderful sonnet wich you have rote. I bet it is the reel class, Ma sed. I bet it will be refused by sum of the leeding magazines in Ameriky.

Seem to it, sed Pa. This is it. It is called My Star. I am going to sell it to a magazeen, Pa sed. It has all the butiful word hungery wich has made such naims as Shelley & Byron famus. Why, sed Pa, if I had quit loafing sum time ago I wud have had them all lashed to the mast. If I had lived in the time of Keats, Keats wud have been working on a weekly paper. If I had lived in Shakespeer's time, Shakspeer wud have been selling dry goods & on the road, at that.

Slip me the sonnet, sed Ma.

I am cumming to that, sed Pa. Bear with me for a minnit & harken to wat I have to say. The way I calm to rite this sonnet, sed Pa, I was up on Washington street & heard sum poets talking in a cafay. They was not big league poets, Pa sed. They wns of the common or garding variety, beering song riters.

One of them tonid about a poem wich he had rote, a song called Moar in Sorrow than in Anger, I Struck My Darling Wife. A other man sed to me that he had rote a poem the day beefore. He sed that he rote it on the back of a envelop. All them song riters does that, sed Pa. They rite things on the spur of the moment & on the back of laundry bills, etc. Meast of them has plenty of laundry bills in there pocket, on wich to rite on, Pa sed. This other poet, sed Pa, had rote this song: You Struck Me With a Match Safe & I Havent Felt Safe Since.

How about yure sonnet? sed Ma. Cum on with the fine poetry!

This is it, sed Pa. If any line of it happens for to offend yure taste, sed Pa, kick in with a few suggestuns. Doant be bashful, Pa sed. A man's best friend & critick is his wife. This is the sonnet wich Pa started for to recite:

My star, my luvly star, wen neath thy rays,
I bask as turtels bask upon a log,
With joy I wiggle like a polly wog,
& dream about the luve of other days.

Wait a minit, wait a minit, sed Ma. Anything wich has polly-wogs & turtels in it is not up to the standard of tree poetry in fack, sed Ma, after having herd this much of yure poetry, I think that as a poet you are a fine janitor. But Pa kep on reeding:

& dream about the luv of other days.
The days wen we was first two candy kids,
& roamed about in un-fre-quented ways
& heard the bowling of the katy dids.

Katy dids doant bowl, sed Ma. Yure poem is tecknically wrong. You bee-tray a alarming lack of knowledge of the things wich has made grate poets famus.

Then Pa got mad & tore up his sonnet. There it is, sed Pa, the poem never wich I have labored since four (4) o'clock this afternoon. I am never cumming hoam at four (4) oclock aggen, sed Pa.
